about our institution

Founded in 1927, the University of Houston is the leading urban public research university in the state of Texas. UH has awarded over 250,000 degrees and over 75% of our alumni remain in the Houston area.

Our students are work-ready and mature. 74% of University of Houston students work while attending college and are responsible for a major portion of their educational expenses. UH students and alumni comprise a large, multitalented, and diverse pool of job candidates. They bring a unique combination of real-world experience and a quality academic foundation to the workplace.

academic programs

UH offers nearly 300 bachelor's, master's, doctoral, and professional degrees through 12 academic colleges. More information on the colleges and their departments can be found at: www.uh.edu/academics/colleges-departments.
